[redacted] PSI, Milwaukee Division, advised on February 3, 1964 that a meeting took place on 1/31/64 at the store of KICK TOPPING located at 726 North 2nd Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This meeting was apparently planned by members of the Citizens for Peace and Disarmament (CPD) in the Milwaukee area and was chaired by RALPH SACKS, a current member of the Communist Party of Wisconsin (CPW).

SACKS advised those present that a Milwaukee group would sponsor the appearance of Attorney MARK LAKE, who was hired by Mrs. OSWALD, the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to clear her son's name. He stated that the sponsoring group for LAKE's appearance could call themselves "The Milwaukee Friends of the National Guardian". He did not feel that the appearance would be profitable, monetarily speaking, but in the event that some profit was realized, it would be forwarded to the "National Guardian."

The group discussed the possible mailing of letters advertising LAKE's appearance and hoped to get other publicity through student newspapers as well as the Milwaukee press. Talks holding six to eight hundred people were discussed as possible sites for the meeting, which should take place on or about February 17, 1964. Of the group of approximately 13 who were present, the majority have participated in CPD functions in the past. The meeting held at TOPPING's store received no publicity other than that the 1/31/64 meeting was the subject of a CPD discussion the previous night.
